

UNITED WAY
Greater Cincinnati

Public Policy & Advocacy

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

United Way of Greater Cincinnati amplifies community members' lived experiences and advocates for the causes that matter most where they live and work. Through its nonpartisan policy initiatives, United Way provides opportunities for people to come together, share their perspectives and drive systemic change that addresses the needs and priorities of their neighborhoods.

Sponsorship Overview

Live United Days are statewide advocacy events where the community joins United Way staff for meetings with state legislators from Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky in their respective capitals. Participants rally support for key policy priorities, championing the needs of families across our tristate region.

Policy with a Splash of Coffee is a quarterly event series hosted in partnership with collaborators featuring expert panels and policymakers. These well- attended events draw about 75 attendees per session and have reached over 3,600 contacts to date. The series highlights critical issues aligned with United Way's mission, offering valuable insights into policies that affect our community and fostering meaningful engagement across a broad audience.
